THREE SEINERS HOME.

Bring Good Trips of Mackerel from North Bay.

Fish Are of Splendid Quality and in Fine Order.

Since the last report, three of the North Bay mackerel seining fleet have arrived home with good fares of salt mackerel and another is expected today.

Sch. Ralph L. Hall has 212 barrels salt mackerel, sch. Victor 170 barrels and sch. Diana, 186 barrels. The fish are all very fat and in splendid order, being well cared for. Sch. Ralph L. Hall has 50 barrels of large fish picked out and separated from the others and sch. Diana has 40 barrels separated. Sch. Victor's fish are not separated.

Capt. James McLean of sch. Diana reports that he left all the fleet off North Sydney, C. B., last Thursday. They had had splendid weather, but no fish had showed for several days. When they first came down off there, from East Point several good catches were made, schs. Ralph L. Hall, A. M. Nicholson and Patricia doing quite well.

He expected sch. Lena and Maud along, but from what he could learn, the rest of the fleet would stay off North Sydney until after this dark and then some were coming up off Halifax to have a look. Some of the vessels, like sch. A. M. Nicholson, sch. Mary E. Harty, and a few others perhaps would stay down there until the last gun was fired and intended to see this "dark" out and also the next one.

In speaking of the catches of the various vessels Capt. McLean said they were about as learned here by the last reports. Sch. Priscilla Smith had 112 barrels, sch. A. M. Nicholson 60 barrels, sch. Mary E. Harty none, sch. Patricia about 100 barrels, sch. Parthia sailing over 100 barrels, sch. George Patena 220 barrels, sch. Patricia about 200 barrels, sch. Electric Flash, 190 barrels, sch. Lena and Maud, somewhere around 150 or 160 barrels and sch. Pinta about the same.

The fish are of splendid quality and finely cared for, the crews seeming to realize the extra fineness of the goods and taking great pains in dressing and pickling them.

Marine Notes.

Sch. Manchester and Hudson of Rondout, N. Y., is being loaded in Bay View with stone for Oyster Bay, N. Y.
 Capt. Alex. Sargent brought in 300 small mackerel into Bay View yesterday, which found a ready sale.
 Several schools of small mackerel have been seen in the bay recently.

A TWO DAYS RECORD.

Three Million Pounds of Fresh Fish at T Wharf, Boston.

This Immense Amount Was Landed by 102 Vessels.

Since yesterday morning's report from Boston, 24 more fishing vessels have arrived at T wharf with fares of fresh fish. Practically the whole of these arrived at the wharf before nightfall yesterday, so that the record for Monday and Tuesday is 102 arrivals with 3,000,000 pounds of fresh fish. This is probably the biggest record ever made at T wharf for two successive days, and bids fair to stand for a long time.

BIG TRIPS AT BOSTON.

Sch. Frances P. Mesquita Brought in 20 Tons of Fish.

Several big trips are reported at Boston this morning, the top liner being sch. Frances P. Mesquita, Capt. Joseph P. Mesquita, with 100,000 pounds of fresh fish, two swordfish and a decided rarity in the shape of 20 tile fish caught off the southeast part of Georges bank. Sch. Onato, Capt. Hehry Larkin, has 85,000 pounds, sch. Arthur Binney, Capt. Maurice Whalen, 85,000 pounds, sch. Evelyn L. Thompson, Capt. Herbert Thompson, 74,000 pounds and sch. Clara G. Silva, Capt. Silva, 60,000 pounds.

The market is good on shore cod, haddock and pollock, but dull on off shore haddock and cod, with no sale for hake.

Oct. 21.

BAD WEATHER TO EASTWARD.

Capt. Daniel McDonald Reports Millions of Squid on Banks.

Capt. Daniel McDonald of sch. Mooween, which arrived from the Gully yesterday afternoon, with a fare of halibut, having been out about three weeks, reported very bad weather to the eastward up to the past few days. All the time he was on the banks the weather was bad with heavy northerly winds, and there was only one day that could really be called a fish day.

Capt. McDonald reports going into Canso, N. S., recently to land one of his crew, Frank J. Johnson, who was ill.

He also reports millions of squid on the bank. He never saw them so solid before. They were so plentiful they could catch them in the day time. He saw some Nova Scotia bankers, but no American fishing vessels. Codfishing appeared to be quite good.
